

EXTRACTS FROM EQUIFAX AND EXPERIAN CORRESPONDENCE

- As a client of XXXX, BTG Intelligence have direct access to our systems. Each XXXX client is required to sign a contract prior to gaining access to our system. This contract stipulates that the client in question must seek consent from the individual concerned, prior to completing a search. XXXX works closely with our clients to ensure that they fully understand this requirement which is specified under the current Data Protection Act.
- It is the responsibility of the client in question to ensure that this consent is sought and that appropriate records are maintained to substantiate each search completed with XXXX.